“Discover the History of Your Home”

Saturday, October 14th

2:00 PM

1836 E 3rd Street, Long Beach, CA 90802

Who built it? Who lived there? How has it changed? Are there historical photographs? Every home has a story to tell.
Learn how to find out yours.

Join Maureen Neeley, Long Beach librarian, preservationist and historian, for a special interactive workshop. Learn how to research the history of homes and commercial buildings in Long Beach, using online and archival resources.

*Participants are encouraged to bring a laptop, and a library card from Long Beach Public Library and/or Los Angeles.

The program will be held upstairs in the Community Room.
